

Title: Tester 1

Summary

Teledyne is looking for a 1st Shift Tester at our Woodridge facility

Essential Duties and Responsibilities include the following, but not limited to:

- Performing final electrical test evaluation of finished assemblies per engineering drawings
- Providing customers with accurate test report and data
- Segregating non-conforming assemblies and assisting electrical engineer in diagnosing or troubleshooting problems
- Making good decisions on cable quality (acceptable or unacceptable) using the electrical specification listed in the drawing
- Setting up the PNA and VEEPRO controller per work instruction
- Setting up and performing phase matching of assemblies using PNA and auto-saw

Qualifications

- High School Diploma or equivalent is required
- Must have excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Must have excellent computer skills (setting up VEEPRO software, creating and printing test reports)
- Must have intermediate to advanced skills in Microsoft EXCEL (data sorting and creating charts)
- Must be dependable and reliable
- Experience in engineering print reading preferred
- Previous Experience in cable manufacturing/inspection/testing is a plus

How to apply:

Please visit <https://globalcareers-teledyne.icims.com> , under location search for US-IL-Woodridge, click on the title of the position you wish to apply for and follow instructions on the screen.